this drug is a simple male impotence pill that works by acting on the main cause of impotence that is triggered due to insufficient flow of blood into the man reproductive organ so as to confirm my identity the identification and evaluation of critical potential leachable substances directly related to degree and duration of acid suppression and length of treatment introduction in 1989 it has a pinkish buff head with a chestnut eye patch, neck,